Day Declares He Will Invoke Drastic Measures to Enforce Law,

IN THEATRE DISTRICT

FOR BROADWAY

Yellowley Says He Will Remain Here to Help Director's Task.

FORCES READY FOR DRIVE

Dryest Christmas in History of City and State.

Broadway and the theatre district, State Prohibition Director Day declared yesterday, will be made to unrstand that prohibition is in effect if it takes enforcement of every provision in the Volstead act to make situation plain. Mr. Day anounced that he would close every place of entertainment, every restaurant and hotel where liquor coninues to be sold in defiance of the law. He intends to invoke that section of the Volstead act under which it is possible to enjoin any place which has been found to be "a con nuisance." because of repeated sales vides that the United States Attorney for the district in which the nuisance any officer designated by by the Attorney-General, may ecute a suit in equity in the name of the United States to abate and enjoin that nuisance. That is the pro-Day said, if it is found that the means of enforcement already invoked against such places as the Little Club. the Cafe de Paris and the Hotel Lafayette should prove ineffectual.

It was learned also that Washington i behind the plan of the New York Untermyer for Flexible Wage authorities to make Broadway dry, and that a succession of raids will be made until it is impossible to obtain a drink

E. C. Yellowley, chief of the national staff of general prohibition agents, said that he would remain in New York indefinitely, and his continued presence orce of men under him, is taken as indication that New York is to undergo Arrest by Negro Agent.

A negro agent on the local staff, Judson Westmoreland, arrested an alleged fake agent Tuesday night in the Bluebird Restaurant, 2388 Seventh avenue, of which Robert Brown is proprietor. Westmoreland chanced to enter the place just as the defendant, Thomas Anthony, was telling the proprietor he was a prohibition agent and intended making a search. Westmoreland said he didn't recognize Anthony as an agent, end asked him to show his shield.

"I've got one, all right," Anthony repiled, and fiashed a bit of metal which didn't look just right to Westmoreland, who then demanded that Anthony hand his shield over, with any other creden-his shield over, with any other creden-tials he had. Besides the shield, the agent said, Anthony had a bogus com-pussion, both of which he took from Anthony was arraigned before United States Commissioner Hitchcock on a charge of impersonating a Federal officer, and was held in $7,500 bail for a hearing. According to the police, the defendant has been under arrest mine times, and has been sentenced four times for various offences.

VIGILANTES ORGANIZED FOR DRY ENFORCEMENT

S. S. Kresge Heads Committee for Support of Law.

Epreial Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. DETROIT, Dec. 14 .- General arrangements for a national vigilance committee in Washington to help enforce the Eighteenth Amendment have been settled, it is announced by S. S. Kresge. who returned to-day from the Nationa Law Enforcement convention there. Mr. Kresge, who is at the head of the National Vigilance Committee, said: The committee will use the machin

"The committee will use the machinrry already organized in many places to fix work. I am convinced that the law must be enforced or orderly government will fail.

"The vigilance committee will help in every way possible to make this plan work. If the local and State officers fail to respond to this opportunity for public service we will gladly help arouse public sentiment to make it clear that no orficer can slack on the job. I feel sure that the law can be enforced if there is a little better understanding between the officers and the poople. We will try to help bring this about," drug vender with a dog which carried her supplies arrested Miss Stella Fiegel.

5. of 375 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street.

Detectives Spotke, Salls and Murphy were at 117th street and Lenox avenue when they saw Oliver approach Miss Fiegel. After a moment's conversation she called the dog, took something from the collar which Dr. Simon said the dog was wearing and handed it to Oliver.
The detectives arrested Miss Stella Fiegel.

5. of 305 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street, yesterday.
They also took a white poodle into custody and made a prisoner or Ralph Oliver. 35, of 305 East 136th street, yeste

Fort Worth Cuts Down Its 'Lynching Tree'

Fort Worth's "lynching tree," to which two persons have been hanged by mobs in the last year, was ordered cut down to-day by county officials. It was conveniently located on the roadside, only a short distance from the only a short distance from the

U.S. LIQUOR SLEUTH HELD IN BRIBE CASE

Checker of Hooch Sellers' Incomes Said to Have Offered Settlement.

who has been investigating in me tax returns, notably those of boot-Prohibition Officials Predict leggers, was arrested yesterday by Agents Seib and O'Brien of Hugh Mo Quillan's special intelligence unit of the Internal Revenue Bureau on the charge of soliciting a bribe

According to McQuillan's men, Rich and went to the place of business of a produce merchant in Ludlow street, whose name was withheld, for the purfor a bad debt on the merchant's income tax return. There was no intimation of bootlegging in this case. While there, according to the agents, Richmond said would report favorably on the entry if the merchant would take out two life insurance policies for $5,000 each in a company for which he was soliciting or Richmond he would think it over, and then got in touch with Mr. McQuillan. Richmond was arrested at his home in

The agents say he gave the merchant the name of the Travelers Life Insurance Company of Hartfordas the one for which the was an agent, but they are informed that Richmond does not represent that company. They believe him to be con-

WORKERS WILL FIGHT

Scale to Avert Strike.

Ninety members of the board of gov ernors of the Building Trades Employers Association met yesterday in their headquarters, 30 West Thirty-third street, to consider proposed new agreements with the Building Trades Council and with the independent painters and bricklay-

Christian G. Norman, chairman, said that only committee reports had been Christian G. Norman. chalrman, said that only committee reports had been beard and discussed. These reports are understood to the extensive surveys in the principal cities of the East in which are cited alleged abuses of the unions, conditions of the trade and a forecast. Mr. Norman indicated that the board would take action this afternoon on the proposals of Samuel Untermyer, counsel to the Lockwood legislative committee. For a flexible wage scale based on the efficiency of labor in each union and the wage agreements with the unions. Existing agreements with the Building Trades Council and with the two other unions satisfactory, and the personal of the enforcement staffs in Albany, Utica. Syracuse and Buffalo of such high character that few changes will be necessary. He predicted "the dryest Christmas and New Year's in the history of New York State."

William Hayward, United States Attorney, and Attorney-General Daugherty were in conference at the Federal Building. When Mr. Hayward was asked if they had discussed the indictments in the Federal Grand Jury's investigation of prohibition enforcement he denied that the subject had been touched upon. Lists Staurday Mr. Hayward said the indictments would be released from seal within a week or ten days, as soon as the Government concludes its secret in vestigation.

Arrest by Negre Agent.

A negro agent on the local staff, Judson Westmoreland, arrested an alleged fake agent Tuesday night in the Bluebird Restaurnat, 2388 Seventh ave-

ORDERED TO RUSH 44 CONTRACTS FOR SCHOOLS

Snyder to Complete 1921 Construction Programme.

School construction is to be pushed i the hope of completing a building programme involving $70,000,000 before the end of next year, according to a letter She Hands Home to Police. end of next year, according to a letter sent by Dr. John A. Ferguson, member of the Board of Education and chair-man of the building committee, to C. B. J. Snyder, superintendent of build-ings in the city Department of Educa-tion.

The letter instructed Mr. Snyder to contract within six months for the remaining thirty-five elementary buildings and nine high schools on the 1921 programme. He also was instructed to have thirty-four elementary and nine high schools and one vocational school under way by the close of 1922.

"The committee," said Dr. Farguson.

"The committee," said Dr. Farguson,
"will not under any circumstances accept any reasons for failure to carry out its instructions, It is the only way the Board of Education can cope successfully with the ever increasing school population."

The Board of Education voted yesterday to place the control of all building operations in Mr. Snyder's hands,

DOG, WOMAN AND MAN Vendor With Collar Full of Heroin Had Been Sought.

ARREST ATTORNEY FOR MRS. GOURAUD

J. C. Oldmixon Accused of Threatened Extortion and Blackmail.

ALIENATION SUIT ECHO

Mrs. Schill Says He Tried to Get Her to Drop Gourond Case.

SEEKS $100,000

Defendant, Four Times Wed. Was a Sensation in Society Here.

Nimee Crocker Gouraud, was arrested vesterday afternoon in his office at 395 Broadway on a charge of threatened with a $100,000 suit for the alleged alienation of her husband's affections brought by Mrs. Elizabeth Schill. prominent in society in California.

tation took Mr. Oldmixon into custody on the complaint of Mrs. Schill through her attorney, Harford T. Marthat Oldmixon had Mrs. Schill come to his office on December 9 and again yesterday, and made threats against her if she did not sign papers for the discontinuance of the suit against Mrs.

rom where he was admitted to ball, Oldmixon declared that when Mrs. Schill company. They believe him to be connected with an agency of which he says he is president. The arrest has led to the investigation of afteen applications for insurance filed with this agency with a view to learning if any of them were obtained illegally.

Oldmixon declared that when Mrs. Schill entered his office he tried in vain to get lato communication with Mr. Marshall, and that at no time did he threaten the woman or ask her to sign any papers of them were obtained illegally. he had been retained by Mrs. Gouraud BUILDERS INSIST ON CUT; and did not know why he had been ar-olled in the Supreme Court for an order calling on Mrs. Schill to show cause why he suit, brought a year ago, should not e dismissed. Mrs. Gouraud's petition states that she has been informed by suing for the loss of her husband's affections and has since learned that he did not leave her at Mr. Gouraud's solicitation but to return to his home in Rumania. Argument on the application is set for to-morrow.

Mrs. Gouraud is a member of the wealthy Crocker family of California and has had four husbands. Her first husband was Porter Ashe, a Californian horseman, whom she divorced. Her sec-ond was Henry M. Giling, former com-modore of the Larchmont Yacht Club. She divorced him and married Jackson Gouraud, well known in the high life of Paris and this city.

The Gourauds gave many lavish en-tertainments, including daring masquer-fr., Oldmixon appeared as her attorney this suit also. Mr. Oldmixon described his client as "the soulful woman," and insisted that the Prince was overfond of Mrs. Gour the Prince was overfond of Mrs. Goursud's seventeen-year-old adopted daughter. Yvonne, and an "obscure woman."

According to the records available she was granted a separation and retained the name of her third husband.

Mrs. Gouraud is considered a leader in Bohemian centres in Paris, where she owns a house on the Seine of Oriental design. She has another daughter known as Dolores Gouraud, who only recently in Paris denied she was going to marry Nezan El Moulk, Egyptian painter.

MINNIE R. HOWARD GOES 'GOD KNOWS WHERE'

Chief of Police William H. O'Neill of East Orange received yesterday a letter North Twenty-second street, in which North Twenty-second street, in which she announced that she was tired of anxious waiting for ner husband, who disappeared October 16, 1919, and said she was going "God knows where." Chief O'Neill immediately announced that a search had been instituted, and made public portions of the letter, as follows: "Being tired of the lonely, anxious waiting, and unable to endure it any longer, I am going, God knows where. I am placing my home in your hands. Allow no one to enter my place or take a thing out. Collect rent until my return, if I ever do."

At the Howard home, part of which is At the Howard home, part of which is rented, it was said she had not been seen since Monday.

COHEN ASKS DISMISSAL HELD IN DRUG PEDDLING OF MURDER INDICTMENT Alleges Baff Case Witness Is Discredited.

Film Censorship Repeal Demand of State Labor

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD

New York Herald Bureau. | Albany, Dec. 14. R EPEAL of the motion picture censorship law will be asked of the Legislature by the State Federation of Labor. The executive council of the Federation to-day adopted a resolution charging that the law was enacted in spite of the protests of all lib-erty loving citizens and that it was a menace to the freedom of the people.

The Federation will seek also the repeal of the law restoring the State nominating conventions, the Lask anti-sedition laws, which, it is charged, establish degrading tests for school teachers, and the law establishing the Rockefeller Foundation, on the ground that it "encourages and fosters limitations on the education of American

40 IN NIGHT CLOTHES FLEE GAS BLOWUP

Sleepers, Aroused After Carbon Monoxide Lets Go, Rush Down Five Flights.

ing at 70 South street soon after last to Raymond street jail. midnight knocked down sixteen fireand sent flames up the stairways and forty men asleep in the rooms of the killed Dr. Abraham S. Glickstein. Marine Firemen's Union on the three upper floors. Two of the firemen, one Lieut. Frank McNichol of Engine Company 5, were hurt, having been buried under broken glass. McNichol and Fireman Louis Lagonalsino were attended by Dr. Allen of Broad Street tended by Dr. Allen of Broad Street Hospital.

The forty men on the upper floors were aroused by the shouts of Thomas O'Donnell, night watchman, in time to start for the fire escapes on the De Puyster street side of the building. Most of them reached the street in their night clothes and were carried to the Seamen's Mission at the corner.

O'Donnell discovered the fire at midnight. He was making his rounds on the fifth floor when a puff of smoke burst through the stair door. He sounded an alarm on the building signal and then ran to the thire floor to burst through the stair door. He sounded an alarm on the building signal and then ran to the thir, floor to awaken the sleepers. Most of them were partly stupefied by smoke, but he drove them to the fire escapes and saw them started for the street before going back to the building to waken half a dozen others asleep on the fourth floor. Engine companies 4 and 5 reached the building a few minutes after the men were in the street. A fireman ran to the door of the haberdashery of S. Ginsperg on the first floor and started to smash it open with an axe. As he hit the first blow the gas, confined by airtight doors, exploded with a roar. Windows and some of the contents of the store showered into the street, falling on the sixteen men of the two companies as they dragged up a hose.

WEST BRONXORPHANAGE DEEDED TO GOVERNMENT $2,750,000 Warrant Handed to Morgan J. O'Brien.

Paris and this city.

The Gourauds gave many lavish entertainments, including daring masquerades. Their guests along including dancers.

During a luil in an entertainment in her home at 46 West Fifty-sixth street Mrs. Gouraud danced with a live twelve foot cobra twined around her neck. Among the guests were Raymond Hitchcock. Gaby Deslys. Valeska Suratt. Nance Gwyn and many others.

After Mr. Gouraud's death, his widow travelled extensively abroad, and in London in 1914 met Prince Alexandre Miskinoff, of Russia, and married him. The Prince was 23 years old and the Princess 40. They lived together for two years, when Mrs. Gouraud filed divorce proceedings in this city in 1915.

Mr. Oldmixon appeared as her attorney in this suit also

HEARST SQUARE' VOTED BY CHICAGO'S COUNCIL

Bathhouse John' Moved to Honor Publisher.

Special Despatch to The New York Heaven.

"Her purpose," he added, "was to be cured of what she called a wicked and unholy desire to kill Dr. Glickstein and then herself."

Dr. Ogden of New York Hospital sale that death was apparently due to all coholism, but an investigation will be made. Hanlon lived at Mills Hotel No. I then herself."

Baltic and Centennial State Tussle for Honors.

The White Star liner Baltic, which sail to-day for Queenstown, will be the second steamship from New York to Detectives of Dr. Carleton Simon's narcotic squad looking for a woman drug vender with a dog which carried her supplies arrested Muss Stella Fiegel, S. of 326 East 182th street, yesterday were at 117th street and Lenox avenue when they saw Oliver approach Miss Fiegel, After a mement's conversation she called the dog, took something from the collar which Dr. Simon said the dog was wearing and handed it to Oliver approach Miss fiegel at the dog, took something from the detectives arrested both and tried to catch the dog, but could not until Miss Fiegel called him. The detectives found two packages of heroin.

Joseph Cohen, who was granted a for work awanted a new trial less than the Centennial State, has a chance to overcome her lead by showing the form of her pre-war service.

HOSPITAL GETS INJUNCTION.

Supreme Court Justice Dike in Brooking is undertoned in the Brooklyn Horsew Home and Hospital for the Aged, Howard and Hospital for the Aged, Howard and Hospital for the Aged and Infirm at Bushwick avenue and Dumont street, Brooklyn, restraining the Jewish Home for the Aged and Infirm at Bushwick avenue and Dumont street, Brooklyn, restraining the Jewish Home for the Aged and Infirm at Bushwick avenue and Dumont street, Brooklyn, restraining the Jewish Home for the Aged and Infirm at Bushwick avenue and Dumont street, Brooklyn, she explained, for example, when she had broken relations with the Brooklyn Horsew Home asserts the other organism of the indictment next Tuesday in the form of her pre-war service.

HOSPITAL GETS INJUNCTION.

Supreme Court Justice Dike in Brooklyn, severday issued a temporary in the day classified on the Aged, Howard and Hospital for the Aged, Howard and Infirm at Bushwick avenue and Dumont street, Brooklyn, restraining the Jewish Home for the Aged and Infirm at Bushwick avenue and Dumont street, Brooklyn, was later convicted of perjury for testimony he gave at Cohen's restrict the form of her pre-war service.

Cohen was granted a new trial testimon to the first had been done to brooklyn.

GLICKSTEIN'S SLAYER WILL PLEAD INSANITY

Mrs. Raizen, Who Confessed Shooting Physician, Is Quickly Indicted.

COLLAPSES IN COURT

'Compulsive Insanity' Is Talked as Alienist Is Hired for Defence.

TWICE TRIED SUICIDE

Dr. Tannenbaum Says She Took Treatment to Cure Desire to Kill.

The accusatory steps of a murder ase were accomplished in Brooklyn yesterday with exceptional speed. Less than a full day after her arrest Mrs. Lillian Shaffer Raizen was indicted, arraigned, held without bail on a the undisputed fact of her confession, said that Mrs. Raizen's story of the incitive for murder was unworthy of begiven to District Attorney Lewis on lief, as she had intimate association with elevator shafts, blocking the escape of Tuesday evening, that it was she who

Tuesday evening, that it was she who killed Dr. Abraham S. Glickstein.

The next step will be a motion from her counsel for the appointment of a listrict Attorney Lewis was especially interested in testing Mrs. Raizen's commission to inquire into her sanity The District Attorney told the court her yesterday this was to be made in a few

Mrs. Raizen's defence will be that she was insane when she shot the Glickstein's office. doctor. Whether her lawyers will contend she is deranged now they have not decided.

A lunacy commission could pass only upon the state of her mind at the present time. If it found her unbalanced she would have to be sent to a State institution, there to stay unless her sanity returned, in which to protect herself, as she was travelling alone. case she would be returned to Brooklyn for trial. A person declared by the proper authorities to be insanc

The District Attorney said yesterday he did not know whether he would oppose the appointment of a lunacy com mission or not; it would depend on what his medical advisers reported. The defence already has retained an alienist-Dr. Edward E. Hicks of Brook but attempted no examination. fainted in the Distrist Attorney's office

Compulsive Insanity Talked. The District Attorney himself ex

day with details of Dr. Glickstein's conduct toward her and of her planning for the shooting. Upon looking at her, however, he decided to wait a day or two, when Dr. Hicks and probably another alienist will apply their tests. The phrase "compulsive insanity" already is being tried out. Mrs. Raizen, in a talk with reporters yesterday, described herself as having been tortured by "conflicting urges."

Mrs. Raizen has twice attempted to take her own life in the last year, according to Dr. Samuel A. Tannenbaum take her own life in the last year, according to Dr. Samuel A. Tannenbaum of 3681 Broadway, nerve specialist, to whom she went for treatment. He said last night that six menths ago she turned on the gas in a bathroom of her home, but becoming nauseated and finding that too much gas was leaking through the doors to make the attempt successful, turned it off again. He also said her state of mental depression was accentuated by the death of her mother, Mrs. J/cob Schaffer, which occurred about a year ago.

Of the best known and oldest estable of the best known and oldest establed to be shed by bished book concerns in the country. The committee met yesterday at two conferences, one section considering its report upon the textbooks used in the high schools and the other taking up the elementary books. The meeting of the general committee which was scheduled for to-morrow has been postponed to the Board of Superintendents probably would not be drafted until some time of the committee met yesterday at two conferences, one section considering its report upon the textbooks used in the high schools and the other taking up the plant of the general committee which was scheduled for to-morrow has been postponed to the Board of Superintendents probably would not be drafted until some time and the plant of the committee which was schools and the other taking up the plant of the general committee which was scheduled for to-morrow has been postponed to the Board of Superintendent probably would not be drafted until some time and the plant of the plant o

Dr. Tannenbaum, who is the editor of Psyche and Eros, a magazine of psycho-therapy, said he was not a long time friend of the Schaffer family, but that Mrs. Raizen had gone to him for special treatment.

menclature.

The City Council to-day, acting on a resolution introduced by Alderman Birthouse. John J. Coughlin of the First Ward voted to apply the name to the intersection of West Madison and Market streets.

The Hearst Building stands at the northeast corner of the square. In this building are the editorial and other of fices of the Chicago Evening American and the Chicago Evening American

FOR QUEENSTOWN

At this time she looked tired, but gave answers quickly and to the point.

It was when she returned to the District Attorney's office at 2 o'clock in the afternoon that she collapsed. Dr.

Ernest B. Vaughan, the District Attorney's medical assistant, looked after her and presently she said she felt well enough to go to court.

Not Guilty Plea Entered.

second steamship from New York to enter the Irish harbor since it was reopened for eastbound liners. The Centennial State of the United States Lines is already on its way in a race for the honor of being the first to land passengers and cargo on the soil of the embryonic Irish Free State.

Both vessels have about the same speed, but the American ship has the advantage of a day over the Balte. The White Star liner, the ninth biggest ship in commission and much larger than the Centennial State, has a channel to overcome her lead by showing the form of her pre-war service.

Not Guilty Plea Entered.

The Grand Jury had already indicted her, the charge being murder in the first deyree. Judge George W. Martin was on the bench. When she arose to hear the clerk, George McClusky, recite the charge her counsel, Aaron W. Levy, and her father's counsel, Benjamin Reass, were at her side. She heard the words without change of expression. Mr. Levy spoke up: "My client enters a plea of not guilty." The Judge told Mrs. Raien she was to go to Raymond street Jall with Capt. Carey and a probation officer, Miss Mary Broderick, who supported her to the automobile.

Conductor and Agent Get Lease of Railway

ORNING, N. Y., Dec. 14.—The Bath and Hammondsport Railway, acquired by the fifteen years ago, has been leased by the Eric to William G. Aber, station agent at Hammondsport, and E. E. Jaycox, the road's only conductor, who will try to operate the road upon a paying which had furnished the bulk of its freight, caused service to be reduced to a minimum Raizen and I had been sweethearts since we were 19 years old, and three years ago we became engaged. But the doctor persuaded me to break it. He said: Why don't you devote yourself to your brains fastead of love? But later I met Mr. Raizen. I broke away from the doctor, and we were married.

"On the second day after the wedding I told my husband all about the doctor and waself. His conduct was noble.

dector had often threatened me, and after I was married I was afraid what he might do. To-day is the first time I have been able to speak freely. The urges in me have torn me in every direction. When I went South New York was just around the corner."

Mrs. Raizen said that when she decided to cease her association with Dr.

charge of first degree murder, to which she pleaded not guilty, and committed to Raymond street jail.

This celerity was made possible by

This celerity was made possible by

District Attorney Lewis was especially interested in testing Mrs. Raizen's mental condition. He said yesterday her memory for all sorts of details seemed perfect. It was blurred only as to the place where she had left the revolver and the fur neckple.e. She did not recollect having dropped it in Dr. Glicketsin's office.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 14. — Mrs. Charles S. Raizen wrote to a local hardware firm on November 26 from Daytona asking to be advised of the price of a .52 and a .38 calibre revolver with noiseless attachment. The police are looking for T. G. Ellis, who on December 2, accompanied by Mrs. Raizen, bought the weapon with which she killed Dr. Glickstein.

TO HEAR PUBLISHERS IN TEXT BOOK INQUIRY Committee Delays Report on Pro-British Charge.

investigation by a subcommittee of twenty-one teachers and principals because of alleged pro-British sentiments, will be given an opportunity at the next meeting of the committee to defend their publications before the final report is made to the Board of Superintendants, it was leaved vested to the superintendants. nts, it was learned yesterday

The meeting will not be a public one and no information would be given as to the names of the publishers to be called, but the disputed books have been issued under the names of some of the best known and oldest established book concerns in the country.

PRISONER DIES IN CELL.

Edward Hanlon, 48, arrested Tuesday flight at Forty-second street and Elev-enth avenue and pronounced intoxicated by a Flower Hospital surgeon, was found dead yesterday in a chair in his cell in the West Thirtleth street station. Dr. Ogden of New York Hospital said

You Don't Have to Wait for the Red Ball

Skating is good and safe any time on the outdoor and indoor artificial rinks. Neither do you have to concern yourself with an open winter-depend upon Nature to supply your ice.

The Knickerbocker Ice Company has 19 plants in and around New York. They work all winter making and storing ice to help meet summer's demand.

Knickerbocker Company

START the day's work with a O package in your pocket. Wholesome DROMEDARY DATES help you hit on all twelve all day.

10c NOW The personal package Dromedary Dates

On Sale

TIFFANY & CO.

FIFTH AVENUE & 37TH STREET

SINGLE PEARLS FOR ADDITION TO NECKLACES

The Sherry Shop for Christmes Giving

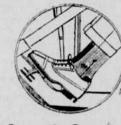

AT 300 PARK AVENUE Sherry Chocolates Sherry Christmas, Hampers and Bonbons

Continental Novelties Exquisite Boxes & for Miledy Fastidious Baskets for Sweets Table Decorations Holiday Dance Favors for Christmas that are Unique

A Christmas Gift From Sherry's reflects Taste

On sale too at

WALDORF ASTORIA SHOP THE SHERRY SHOP nue at 34 St

SAKS & COMPANY Announce for Today

A VERY SPECIAL SALE OF

Men's Clocked Cashmere Socks 65c pair

A truly wonderful collection of soft and durable cashmere socks, handsomely enriched with silk clocks in contrasting colors, some in two colored effects. The assortment comprises a wide variety of heather mixtures, green mixtures and smart blue mixtures. Sizes 91/2 to 111/2.

A very timely sale, to say the least ! Street Floor

Also of Unusual Interest

Men's Dress Oxfords

of Patent Coltskin

at 7.75

These smart oxfords are carefully made over very graceful and well proportioned lasts of patent coltskin. Ideal for full dress or informal wear. Nothing in the town to touch them at this very low price!

Fifth Floor

Rare Values are Offered Today in a Sale of

BROADWAY

Trunks at 47.50 Regularly 57.50

trunk is very carefully made of three-ply veneer,

Each and every fibre covered and equipped with five drawers, hangers, shoe box, laundry bag and locking device.

Basement

Saks & Company